

urthermore, it may lead to the decrease of supply of goods and services and the lack of gov't investments in vital sector which have negative impact on future generation. Moreover, it may trigger other negatives social phenomena such as violence, theft, and dishonesty. For these reasons, as a member of this community, we would like to highlight the importance of being responsible and restraining personal spending.