

The only comment is that the time of the doctor's availability is up to 4:30, 5 o'clock only. However, we have to take off for the day to consult the doctor and do the test and all. So if it is available on Saturday or in the late evening, it will be beneficial for patients like us who are working in the up to 7 o'clock. It will be beneficial.