

A great way to ensure your products are skin-friendly and safe for you and your customers is to look for makeup made with vegan ingredients. Not only do they contain harsh chemicals that can harm your skin, but they also contain animal-derived ingredients. Vegan manufacturers also avoid testing their products on animals before selling them.