

I am an assistant principal at a public school interested in utilizing technology in the educational process. My university major is educational and information technology.