

Dear Colleagues We are excited to invite you to participate in our Learning Empowerment Survey. The survey includes questions about your training preferences, challenges you face in your roles, and your suggestions for improving our learning and development initiatives. Your participation will help us tailor our training programs to empower you in your professional growth and enhance your daily work experience.