

Fishes, the most numerous vertebrates (around 20,000 species out of an estimated 40,000 vertebrate species), exhibit vast diversity in size and shape, ranging from the 21m whale shark to the