1.App Presentation: Each student will have a few minutes to present their chosen app to the class.Adaptive Learning Algorithms: Applications like Duolingo adjust difficulty levels based on user performance, ensuring tailored learning experiences.Objective: Our goal is to explore different language learning apps, evaluate their features and effectiveness, and select the most suitable app for our individual learning needsEach student will explore a different language learning app of their choice.App Evaluation: After exploring the app, evaluate its strengths and weaknesses based on the following criteria: Vocabulary Building: Does the app offer effective methods for learning and practicing vocabulary?Embracing these mobile learning and app-based strategies equips educators to provide a dynamic, engaging, and effective educational experience.Augmented Reality (AR) for Language Learning: AR apps like Mondly create virtual scavenger hunts to discover and learn new English words in a simulated environment.Share your findings, experiences, and recommendations.2.3.4.6.7.8.2.3.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com