

ZARQA, 24 January 2019: Children with disabilities, their parents and disability rights activists joined UNICEF in a Zarqa Makani centre today to raise awareness of the rights of children with disabilities and to create community-led solutions to overcome the barriers they face in accessing quality education.