

In Willow Creek, a school bus accident occurred when a truck slid into it on a rainy day. Mr. Harris, the bus driver, braked but couldn't avoid the collision. While the bus was damaged and the kids scared, thankfully only minor injuries resulted. Emergency services responded, and students continued to school on a different bus.