

It Seems that technology can effect on students negatively and positively and overall well-being .