

The airport is keen to sterilize the luggage for comprehensive disinfection to ensure the safety of the traveler. Successful adaptation to evolving conditions has been achieved through advanced technology and effective coordination with partners.