

Six-year-old Marta Garcia let the thief get away with was sitting with her little that. She started hitting the three-year-old brother in the carjacker with her fists and backseat of the family car as pulling his hair. Suddenly a stranger appeared Marta took her brother from and pushed Marta's father out of the way. Marta's Marta's father looked up, he father was holding on to the couldn't believe his eyes. He said later, "My brother's hand. children were in there. I wasn't going to let go." Finally he lost Marta said, "I wasn't scared. but the thief overpowered him Some minutes later, when and got in the car. Marta was holding her the road. I was the road.