

Lord of the Flies (1954) is among the most intriguing and thought-provoking novels of the 20th century. Its author William Golding was fed up with WWII, the Cold War, and the threat of a nuclear war.