KAM (Key Account Management): The development of Key Account Management Program as some companies insisted upon new purchasing approaches like national contracts and master purchasing agreements to be adopted by vendors.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com