

Ernest Hemingway's "A Farewell to Arms" (1929) is a poignant novel set during World War I that explores themes of love, war, loss, and existential disillusionment. Through his minimalist prose and use of the "iceberg theory," Hemingway creates a novel that speaks to the human experience of struggle and the search for meaning in a world filled with chaos.