

The "Library Management system's" primary goal is to control and coordinate library activities. A library is a perfect place to find all types of books. Library Management system is a web-based software that could only be used by authorized users. The Library Management System was created to simplify the process of creating online library information and extracting information about books in the library.