

Today, the principle of 'distributed leadership' has developed popular in latest years as different models of leadership that relate themselves starting with the attributes and manners of single 'leaders' as trait, situational , style and transformational theories..