

The cost of setting up a company depends on some factors which influence the increase or decrease in the cost due to the market. So, the total startup cost is 50,00,000, and we will have an income from the participation of the tourists who will participate in our experience. Obstacles.