3.4 Functional Requirements This section outlines the specific functionalities that the system is expected to perform.– Notifications should be sent to users for booking confirmation and service completion.Functional Requirements: – Users should be able to register and log in to access the system.– The system should display nearby service providers available for booking.– Service providers should have tools to manage and organize their bookings effectively.– Secure online payment options must be supported by the system.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com