

For sculptures to be lit in way that enhances the visitor experience, the contrast between light and shadow needs to be managed for maximum impact. The optimum angle of illumination for sculptures is 30°, to ensure that no shadow is cast by onlookers.