

With the Greeks and Romans came recorded history, and the use of the wheel is thereafter a well-chronicled story of further applications and refinements.