1.Develop coding for project implementation: This objective includes writing and programming the code needed to run the project functions based on the requirements and circuit diagram.Project Report and Documentation: This objective includes writing a comprehensive report that documents all aspects of the project including the components used, technical details, challenges faced, and solutions followed.Identify project component requirements: This objective includes identifying and understanding the components necessary to design the smart basket, including the Arduino, LEDs, and rain sensor.Develop a circuit diagram to achieve the project objective: This objective relates to drawing a diagram of the electrical circuit required to effectively achieve the project function.2.3.4.5.6.7.8.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com