

G20 achievements: Agreeing on growth policies to mitigate abuse of the financial system Addressing the financing of terrorism and raising the level of transparency among member states Improving the level of regulations and supervision of financial markets