

Summary: o Anaphylactic reactions may occur shortly after administration of glaramer acetate, also in patients who have used the drug for a long time. Fatal events have been reported.