Gulf College was established in 1990. It holds institutional and academic accreditation and offers 9 different specializations, which are as follows: Accounting, Finance, Business Economics, Marketing Management, Management Information Systems, and Sciences. It obtained a ministerial license and a license from scientific research and innovation.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com