

The Technical Museum is a museum that specializes in displaying applied sciences and technological developments.