

Ethical Issues are one of most important and one of major thing to deal with in dental practice and must be consider (if don't solve) the end of the Doctor career .Maximizing patient welfare through beneficence, promoting the fair and equal treatment of patients or justice, and maintaining honesty through the principle of veracity