

: 1– Secular significance: For transferring people or goods from one place to another. The most famous scene was depicted at Deir el Bahari temple: representing the transportation of Hatshepsut's obelisks from Aswan to Karnak temples where they were erected 2– The religious significance: As there were 2 main trips which had to be done by the deceased.