

Also, Traders: Merchants played an effective role in spreading and transmitting news. moreover, The Misharati: In the month of Ramadan, a person called the Misharati beats the drum, traveling around the village to wake people up at the time of Suhur. Traders who move between countries meet people from different cities and villages who hear the news and take it to where they set foot.