

The best presentation in the world will bomb if it is not delivered well, and without putting the following key elements of presentation into consideration: First, Preparation: Effective lesson presentation should be preceded by a good lesson plan, which, in turn, should be followed during the lesson presentation. Fourth, The Variety of Stimuli: _ Teacher should change his style and the volume of his voice, or vary the teaching aids used for lesson presentation in the classroom in order to increase learners' motivation. Seventh, Providing Examples, and illustrations for new concepts and ideas.
