

The study conduct evaluation of advanced medical imaging services at private centers in south west bank by using Donabedian model, to assess the services inputs were included such as number of centers, communication of the staff and RTs with clients, and type of equipment. The process included affordability and accessibility to imaging services, appropriateness, Communication, respect, safety and privacy.