

learning to use language socially: Children also are learning how to use language socially (pragmatics). Are acquiring linguistic and communicative competence.