

NCB assesses SME loan applications by considering business plans, cash flow, credit history, and collateral. In 2024, it funded over 450 SMEs with Islamic-compliant loans, like working capital and startup financing, offering quick processing and flexible terms, supported by the Kafala Program.