

Einstein started school when he was six years old. Upon graduating in 1896, Einstein enrolled in the Swiss Federal Polytechnic School in Zurich. Einstein's frustration with rigid school curriculums led him to drop out of school at 15. He then enrolled in a secondary school that encouraged his creativity and free thinking.