The term information technology is consideredTechnology IT is a popular term at the moment. whereThis term refers as defined by the Information Technology Association ITAA Information Technology Association of America of to “all activities related to study, analysis and design,Developing, supporting and operating computer–based information systems. whereThis technology is concerned with the use of computers and their software applicationsTo securely transfer, store, protect, process, send, and retrieve data and information “

Summarized by © lakhasly.com