

The Kasih family has a long history of being strongly associated with the tahini and halva industry. (Hajj Muhammad Adnan Al-Kasih) established the Al-Kasih Nourishment Factories Group, which is proud to be the most advanced tahini and halva, or business in the region, carrying on his father's legacy. It was founded in 1926 by Hajj Raslan Al-Kasih and became Amman's first halva and tahini plant in 1998. Al-Kasih Foodstuff Industries Complex has grown significantly since its establishment in 1926.
