

Suhail Bahwan (Sawal Salim Bahwan) (born 1939/38) is an Omani billionaire businessman. Suhail Bahwan Automobiles began operations in April 2004, as an approved national company selling Nissan cars in the Sultanate of Oman. The Suhail Bahwan Group is now the largest privately owned company in Oman, along with its brother Suhail Saud Bahwan, was divided into two groups. One of the leading automobile companies in the Sultanate of Oman and employing more than 3000 employees across the country, with the vision of building, owning and promoting the finest business and products globally. Bahwan transferred much responsibility for the management of the Suhail Bahwan Group to Amal Bahwan, Bahwan is married and has 15 children and lives in Muscat, Sultanate of Oman. Bahwan won for the year Sheikh Isa bin Ali Al Khalifa for volunteer work by the League of Arab States. M is the leading company in Bahwan International Holding Group. Inherited from business between Oman and India.