

After reviewing the pervious literature ,I found that much of it referred to learning theories that investigated the process of learning and acquiring language ,and that the child acquires language from adults through the daily situations and events to which he is exposed.Role play effectiveness the teach skills speaking for EFL college students .Thornbuy(20060finds that dialogue is informal speech among teaching .my current study distinguish for pervious studies by the difference in it objective variables and sample .In this study ,I addressed the role play to improve and develop students in speaking skills in 9th grade The content of the text, its retrieval and summarization (26) an focus of the educational process, I left out the importance of play is able to criticize and express his opinion, representing value Writer says drama strategy such as role play suggests ,new teaching– learning methods which is enhanced speaking skills.Jurnale this study to investigate the implement of role play strategy in developing 9th grade in oral presentation skills, and how effect student during classroom.The oral presentation was used.2023.