

Regular monitoring and controlling through direct supervision keeping accurate records of all work carried out using appropriate systems and regular briefings and site meetings.