

Friendship in school is a pivotal aspect of the educational experience, influencing both personal growth and academic success. How do friendships shape our time in school, and what makes them so significant?