Hamad International Airport is a prime example of innovation and technology in the COVID-19 era. The airport has witnessed changes and the focus has been on enhancing safety and health to protect travelers and employees.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com