

"Improve student learning outcomes by increasing standardized test scores by 15% and launch 5 student-led innovation projects by the end of the academic year, through teacher training, technology upgrades, and partnerships with educational experts, aligning with Saudi Vision 2030's focus on education quality and innovation