

Edward Albecker noted that at that point need to interject something which is a delicate matter between members they have spoken about how he wanted be clear it involves the CEO and the chairman and it has nothing to do with him but it has to do with the perception rather than reality, he will be the Devil's Advocate but he does not want them to get the wrong impression it is not his opinion but other people e opinion they hear it outside and need to be vented at the board meeting. He noted Peter Waldron call him and told him when the CEO talks it looks like the DLP criticizing the BLP. Last incident where the Minister said that this minister will not be reducing and will not stop the importation of chicken wings.
