

The report will focus on various mental illnesses and the difference between a healthy person and a person suffering from a mental illness.