

Preparing financial reports The accountant prepares periodic reports that reflect the financial performance of the university, such as the monthly and annual budget Budget monitoring The accountant participates in preparing the university's annual budget and monitors spending to ensure compliance with the budget Auditing and reviewing The accountant conducts internal reviews to ensure the accuracy of financial data and its compliance with accounting standards and internal policies The accountant at the university is a vital part of the administrative team as it contributes to achieving financial goals and ensuring transparency and accountability in financial operations.