

MOVEit is a file transfer platform developed by Progress Software, used by thousands of institutions, government agencies, and financial institutions. In 2023, there was a wave of cyberattacks and data breaches began after a vulnerability was discovered in MOVEit. In May 2023, a ransomware gang called Cl0p began abusing a zero-day exploit and attacked the MOVEit.