

It was just an ordinary night on a crowded subway car for Patrick Swales, a 21-year old web designer in New York City. Suddenly, he saw himself waiting at the platform. But the clothes were not really his style. Disbelief, amusement, wonder were all conveyed in that one look! Shaken by the encounter and determined to find his double, Patrick came up with a unique idea. He created a website called subwaymydouble.com. He posted his own photo and a description of the man he had seen in the subway, in the hope that someone would see it and make contact. His name is Manuel and he is in New York: studying web design! Patrick and Manuel have decided to take themselves out of the public eye, so they have stopped updating the site.
