Operational excellence is the use of cutting-edge information technology to deliver the best and most effective service to clients while successfully meeting the objectives of the company.