

The idea of knight bonds is based on the idea that chemical bonds are formed due to overlapping or partial overlap between the knight cars of the atoms involved