

The most important aim from going to school is to learn. Also, I avoid chatting with others. So, I do my best to concentrate during the lessons. I try to take notes and ask questions if I have any. I also try not to be distracted by others. I know how much effort teachers put to deliver the learning, so I do my best to get all the benefit during my school day.